ANSWER: Denied.

3. [4.] Admit that any message that were left at 773-507-8483 by ERC were left for Sherita Morgan.

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this request for admission as it is neither relevant nor likely to lead to admissible evidence. Admitted to the extent that the voice message states that it was for Sherita Morgan, and denied to the extent that ERC knew it could be leaving a message for a person other than Sherita Morgan. Further, a portion of each prerecorded message spoke directly to plaintiff, and instructed her to delete the message.

4. [5.] Admit that you first received a message on the 773-507-8483 number from ERC on or about February 6, 2010.

ANSWER: To the best of plaintiff's knowledge, admitted.

5. [6.] Admit that the message you received on February 6, 2010 from ERC at 773-507-8483 identified the intended recipient of the call as Sherita Morgan.

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this request for admission as it is neither relevant nor likely to lead to admissible evidence. Plaintiff lacks information to admit or deny the request in request number 5. [6.]. However, all of the other messages ERC played were at least partially directed to plaintiff, and instructed her to delete the message.

6. [7.] Admit that you never returned the call from ERC in response to the message of February 6, 2010 to advise ERC that they had not reached Sherita Morgan.

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this request for admission as it is neither relevant nor likely to lead to admissible evidence. Subject to the objection, Denied. Plaintiff called ERC and asked that it stop calling her after February 6, 2010.

Further, a portion of each prerecorded message spoke directly to plaintiff, and instructed her to delete the message..

9. [10.] Admit that none of the message left by ERC since February 6, 2010 at 773-507-8483 were for you.

10. [11.] Admit that all of the message left by ERC since February 6, 2010 at 773-507-8483 stated that they were for Sherita Morgan.

ANSWER: Plaintiff objects to this request for admission as it is neither relevant nor likely to lead to admissible evidence. Subject to the objection, Admitted in part and denied in part. Denied because all messages were left on plaintiff's voice mail, rather than on Sherita Morgan's voice mail, and because the messages included a portion that contemplated someone other than Sherita Morgan. Admitted that the messages themselves stated that the message was for Sherita Morgan. Further, a portion of each prerecorded message spoke directly to plaintiff, and instructed her to delete the message.

11. [12.] Admit that at least one of the messages left by ERC since February 6, 2010 at 773-507-8483 stated that they were for Sherita Morgan.
